♦ ♦ ♦ ABOUT OUR SCHOOL ♦ ♦ ♦

THE LOUISIANA INSTITUTE OF MASSAGE THERAPY (LIMT) offers quality education student's can trust. The Institute has been in the massage education business since 1987. LIMT was started by massage therapists, is taught by massage therapists, and is run by massage therapists. Furthermore, LIMT was one of the first massage schools to be licensed by the state of Louisiana; our faculty members are regarded as experts in the field.

THE INSTITUTE'S HISTORY - While pioneering the profession of massage therapy along the Gulf Coast, Ms. Susan Salvo was frequently sought out by massage schools to teach her specialty – massage-oriented anatomy and physiology. The Louisiana Institute of Massage Therapy evolved from workshops she created and taught in the 1980's and was formally establishing the Institute in 1987.

To further support students in their quest for knowledge, Ms. Salvo used her curriculum as a guide to write the best-selling textbook, Massage Therapy: Principles and Practice. Later, Ms. Salvo completed her second book, Mosby's Guide to Pathology for Massage Therapists. Both textbooks are published by Elsevier. She has also authored and co-authored chapters in other textbooks used in massage schools across the country. The Institute is proud to provide its students with professional textbooks written by its founder.

The Institute continues to produce graduates that are among the most successful in the South. The Institute maintains this high standard by having its core faculty made up of highly qualified and dynamic instructors.

LICENSURE - The program offered by the Louisiana Institute of Massage Therapy is licensed and/or approved by:

- The Louisiana State Board of Massage Therapy
- National Certification Board of Therapeutic Massage and Bodywork (School #147428-00)
- The Louisiana Board of Regents

Upon graduation, our students are eligible to sit for the National Certification Exam for Therapeutic Massage, the Massage & Bodywork Licensing Examination, and the Louisiana State Board of Massage Therapy licensing exam, as well as many other licensing exams in other states requiring 510 hours of education.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR DISABILITY - Massage therapy can be learned and easily practiced by those who have certain physical or learning disabilities. The Institute is committed to providing equal educational opportunities for all qualified students with disabilities in accordance with state and federal laws and regulations, including the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Students are required to disclose any learning or physical disability that will require assistance from the Institute. Each student is assessed individually and LIMT makes every attempt to make reasonable accommodations. Please note that massage is a physically demanding profession, and not all disabilities may be appropriate for a career in massage. LIMT reserves the right to deny admission to a student who is unable to meet the training requirements.

♦ ♦ ♦ MASSAGE AS A CAREER ♦ ♦ ♦

A VARIETY OF CAREER OPTIONS – Massage therapists can practice in a wide variety of settings. What a graduate can do after graduation is limited only by his or her dedication, resourcefulness, and imagination. Career options include: acupuncturists, airports, athletic teams, bed & breakfast inns, dance companies, chiropractic clinics, corporate wellness programs, cruise lines, day spas, fitness & luxury resorts, golf & tennis clubs, health clubs & gyms, hospitals, hotels, massage therapy clinics, nursing homes and long-term care facilities, on-site massage in offices, pain management clinics, physical & occupational therapy clinics, private practice, salons, shopping malls, sports medicine clinics, and veterinary clinics.

JOB PLACEMENT ASSISTANCE - The Institute pledges to assist graduates wherever possible in securing employment, however, we are primarily an educational institution and can not guarantee placement or employment. The Institute maintains close lines of communication with many health clubs, spas, salons, hospitals, and clinics in Southern Louisiana, who offer valuable employment opportunities.

MASSAGE THERAPY AND RELATED STUDIES - In this block, a variety of massage and bodywork styles are covered. Students need to learn a wide array of styles and techniques to serve the needs of a wide variety of clientele. Also includes Swedish gymnastics, a system of passive, active, and resisted stretches and joint mobilizations. This section also teaches body mechanics, professional draping techniques, seated massage, side-lying massage, pregnancy massage, geriatric massage, sports massage, and massage adaptations for special populations. The instructors act as coaches, evaluate the students, and give feedback based upon technique application and body mechanics. #### A Personal Note to the Prospective Student

Hello and thanks for expressing an interest in the Louisiana Institute of Massage Therapy. Massage therapy is a fascinating and rewarding career choice with almost limitless possibilities. We are extremely proud of our curriculum and our staff, but we have to give credit for our success to our graduates. The fact that they are out working and making their individual dreams come true is the greatest reward we can receive as educators.

And here at the Louisiana Institute of Massage Therapy, it is our business to help you make your own dreams come true. There is nothing more wonderful than looking forward to going to the office each day, doing work that you truly love, experiencing the rewards of helping people both physically and emotionally, and making a very good living doing it. Our reputation is built on offering quality programs with flexible hours at an affordable price. But don't take our word for it compare our fees, our curriculum, and the qualifications of our faculty. Call your local massage therapists and ask them what they think about us. While you're on the phone, ask them how much they charge. In fact, if you've never had a massage, schedule one and get a taste of what it's all about. And, if there's anything that we can do to help you along the way, please do not hesitate to contact us and ask for us personally. Remember, life is too short to be stuck in a job you don't like.

Sincerely,

Michael Breaux and Susan Salvo
